Principal's Message

'Be a Blessing.....'

Yes, being a blessing to oneself and others is a gift. Each day when I rise from my bed I say a big thank you to God for giving me one more day. I thank the Almighty for His unconditional love. This day is a gift from Him to us. I take it as a Birthday gift every day and I pray 'help me to be a blessing for others'. "May I be a fragrant of your love and radiate your Divine fragrance".

Parents, you are a blessing for your children and children are a blessing for you. Friends are a blessing too. Every moment in our life is a blessing, let us cherish it and relish it. Experience the surprise blessing which comes to us in our day to day life.

By blessing others, being kind to them, you will receive blessings from God in your life and in your family and you will enjoy peace, joy and love. By being grateful to God, you inherit blessings. I have a little story to tell you.

There was an elderly man helplessly waiting for someone to help him cross the road. A big gang of boys and girls crossed the road, but he just waited there in silence. Then, he saw one about to cross. He immediately asked him for help. The student immediately obliged. Once, they reached on the other side, the boy asked him; 'Grandpa, so many crossed before me, why did you choose to ask me?' The old man replied, 'Son I saw in your eyes a blessed person and a blessing for others.' And he blessed the boy with a gracious, grateful smile. The boy stood still for a moment. 'Grandpa, he said, 'my parents also bless me, just like you'.

A small act of kindness for anyone could be a blessing. So let us be a blessing and concentrate on counting our blessings and you will need little to count anymore.

Thank you and God bless.

Life

Life has never been so hard
 The problems you have a need to discard
 See the world with your colorful eyes
 Just forget all your pain and enjoy your life
 Look at the drops of the rain
 Filled with your heart's desire
 Look at the beautiful mountains
 That soothe your every pain
 Every day and every hour
 Make your agony into power
 If it's cold outside
 Show the world the warmth of your 'inside'
 Oh! May you find God's grace in every mistake
 And always give the world more than you take
 God will make a way
 Where there seems to be no way
 Success and happiness are not difficult to find
 All you need is to be harmonious, calm and kind
 Don't say you can't
 Just be diligent like an ant.
